

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Mary M. Russell, Marketing Coordinator
Culture, Parks and Recreation Department
970-350-9448 mary.russell@greeleygov.com

Rodarte Community Center Hosts Boxing Battle of the Belts

November 16, 2017 (Greeley, CO) – The Rodarte Boxing Club hosts their annual boxing smoker Battle of the Belts at the Rodarte Community Center on Saturday, Nov. 18. A number of boxers who are part of the City of Greeley’s Rodarte Boxing Club will be competing in the event. The event is sanctioned by USA Boxing and will host competitors from boxing clubs throughout the Front Range and out-of-state.

Weigh-ins will be from 8-10am for those competing on Saturday. There will be roughly 25 matches during the Battle of the Belts event, which will begin at 3pm. Matches will run through 11pm until the final round is complete, and boxers will go 2-3 rounds each. Individuals interested in participating in the boxing smoker should arrive early to ensure placement in the event. Community support is encouraged to cheer on local boxers at the show. Admission is $10 for adults, seniors and children 10 and older are $5 each, kids 9 years of age and under are free.

The Rodarte Community Center offers a boxing program for youth and adults that teach the basics of the sport. There is both a recreational program and competitive track at the center and registration is held on a monthly basis. The Rodarte Community Center is located at 920 A Street in Greeley. For more information about the event call 970-350-9430 or visit <http://greeleyrec.com/activities/calendar>.

###