

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Mary M. Russell, Marketing Coordinator
Culture, Parks and Recreation Department
970-350-9448 mary.russell@greeleygov.com

Rodarte Community Center Hosts Put 'em Up Boxing Smoker

October 23, 2018 (Greeley, CO) – The Hard Knocks Boxing Club will be hosting their annual boxing smoker Put 'em Up at the Rodarte Community Center on Saturday, October 27. Three boxers who are part of the City of Greeley's Hard Knocks Boxing Club will be competing in the event: Kaleb Dutrow (102 lb.), Angel Arredondo (Heavy Weight) and Josiah Herrera (136 lb.). Roughly 30 bouts will take place with participants coming from Wyoming, Nebraska, Kansas and Texas. The event is sanctioned by USA Boxing and sponsored by the Danny Juarez Foundation.

Weigh-ins will be from 8-10am for those competing on Saturday. The show will begin at 2pm. Matches will run through 10pm until the final round is complete, and boxers will go 2-3 rounds each. The boxing smoker is open to the public. Admission is $10 for adults/youth, children 7 years old and under are free with a paid adult/youth.

The Rodarte Community Center offers both a recreational and competitive boxing program for youth and adults. Registration is held on a monthly basis. The Rodarte Community Center is located at 920 A Street in Greeley. For more information about the event call 970-350-9430 or visit <https://greeleyrec.com/activities/calendar>.

###